After two decades as a TV reporter in several commercial markets, including Madison, Green Bay, Milwaukee, and Minneapolis, Freyberg joined WPT in 2003. She is a three-time winner of the Edward R. Murrow Award for her In Wisconsin reporting and a recent recipient of the UW-Madison School of Journalism Distinguished Alumni Award. As Freyberg reflected, “This, to me, is more meaningful than all the others (awards).”

Freyberg grew up in Madison and is married to her favorite lawyer, Gary. They have three children. According to broadcast journalist Freyberg, she is, indeed, “living the dream!”

GREETINGS FROM THE PRESIDENT

I have enjoyed my year as University League President immensely. The position has given me new life experiences and confidence. I have had the pleasure of meeting and working with amazing women who have energized and inspired me. I am grateful to the wonderful 2012-2013 Board who have been instrumental in the success of the year. Thank you to the Interest Group Chairs, the Committee Chairs and members, and the volunteers in our service organizations also. I value all of you for your commitment, dedication, and efforts to make the League the best that we can be.

Our work, however, is not quite done. It is time for the Yearbook Committee to meet to plan next year’s Yearbook. The Gifts and Grants Committee whose job it is to recommend to the Board the distribution of our scholarship and grant dollars will meet at the end of April. The Finance Committee will make a proposal to the Board for the coming year’s budget. The current Board will meet in May before the end of our fiscal year. The Long Range Planning Committee is working on clarifying our Board job descriptions and adding information from our policies and Treasurer’s manual to them. Our Annual Meeting is also coming up on May 7 and we will vote on a change in the Bylaws. Mary Jo Prieve and the Endowed Scholarship Committee have already distributed the endowed scholarship funds to the appropriate UW Schools and Colleges. This year we have enjoyed meeting our outstanding and grateful scholarship recipients.

In March, I attended the Book Review-Lunch group and heard a wonderful review of Julie Andrew’s current book, Home. Our 26 Interest Groups are thriving. We have heard some outstanding speakers this year during our programs: Chancellor David Ward, Neil Heinen and soon to speak at the Annual Meeting, Frederica Freyberg. We have initiated a fund raising effort to reach out to businesses in the community for scholarship dollars. Our committee is working diligently to send letters and follow up with calls for personal contact. Martha Taylor, Vice President of Development for the UW Foundation spoke to our Board in February about Women’s Philanthropy and had suggestions for our fundraising efforts.

The University League received a great honor from the Wisconsin School of Medicine and Public Health. We have become a Middleton Fellow, within the Middleton Society, named after Dr. William S. Middleton, who served as Dean for 35 years. This designation honors our commitment to the UW School of Medicine and Public Health which has achieved distinction in teaching and research. Our support of over $10,000 recognizes our philanthropic investment in their continued excellence. The name of The University League Inc. will be engraved on a plaque in the Health Sciences Learning Center.

I am so proud to be a member of University League and I hope you all had a rewarding year.

Sincerely,
Bobbie Johnson
President
GETTING TO KNOW YOUR BOARD MEMBERS

Sally Lorenz, Chair of the Long Range Planning and Policy Committee, was born in Salt Lake City and grew up in Tulsa, Oklahoma. She migrated north to attend Carleton College, receiving a BA in Biology in 1967, did graduate work in Anatomy at the University of Chicago and received an MS in Education-Zoology from UW-Madison. She met her husband, Bob, while ice-skating at Vilas Park and they were married in 1970. After living in Aberdeen, MD and Rochester, NY (where their three children were born), they moved to Madison in 1982. Sally worked many years in education, teaching biology and general science and serving as a Christian Education director. She has also always been an active volunteer in church, school, community, and university related activities where her current volunteer involvement includes University League board, Attic Angel Association, P.E.O., Covenant Presbyterian Church, and John Knox Presbytery. Sally has served on the League board several times and was its President in 2002-03. She and Bob have three grown children who are married and have blessed them with six beautiful grandchildren ages one to six. Sally and Bob have had the great privilege of traveling worldwide to engineering meetings, on church mission trips, and to visit family. In her spare time, Sally’s hobbies include making and decorating gingerbread houses, baking, and knitting.

Mary Jo Prieve, Chair, Endowed Scholarship Committee. I grew up in what is now the City of St. Francis, a suburb of Milwaukee. I graduated from UW-Madison with a BA in Political Science, lived in Milwaukee until I married my husband of almost 50 years. We lived in Washington, D.C. while my husband finished his doctorate at George Washington University, and I was on the staff of Senator Gaylord Nelson (D-Wis). We moved to Madison in 1965 and have been here since then. We have two children and two amazing grandchildren. I have been the Membership Chairman of University League and also served as President. The only Interest Group I currently belong to is the Needlework Interest Group. I am an active member of Attic Angel Association and the Embroiderer’s Guild of America.

Roberta (Robbie) Preston, Interest Group Chair, grew up in Virginia, Maryland, and Washington D.C. in a Marine Corps aviator family. She received a B.A. in Liberal Arts at her parents’ and grandparent’s alma mater, Michigan State University. She also met and married her husband Ivan Preston at MSU. After five years at Penn State, Ivan and Robbie with daughters Micaela and Julie came to Madison where Ivan joined the Journalism and Mass Media faculty. When third daughter Terry was six and in school most of the day Robbie went to Madison General School of Nursing. Robbie worked at Madison General/Meriter for twenty five years picking up a BS in Nursing along the way. Robbie’s community service includes tutoring at public schools and participating in various health clinics in Madison and Monona. Robbie is a member of Foreign Foods, Dining Out and Needlework Interest Groups. She has assisted with various University League Board committees. It has been a pleasure to serve on University League Board.
GETTING TO KNOW YOUR BOARD MEMBERS

Kathleen (Kathy) Knox, Program Chair, was born on a Century Farm (farm owned by one family for over 100 years) near Beloit, Wisconsin. She is the youngest of seven children. Her oldest brother was serving in the military during WWII at the time of her arrival. Kathy met her husband as an undergraduate at UW Platteville. They moved to Madison in 1968 when Jim accepted a position in the UW Madison Geography Dept. Kathy joined University League Newcomers and credits it with an ideal introduction to her new community. Kathy taught first grade at Shorewood Hills Elementary School until the first of their two daughters was born. She returned after a few years and continued that career until 2005. Both of their daughters are educators, Lezlie at Marquette University and Sara at Lodi Middle School. There are two grandsons that highlight Kathy's life. After announcing her plans to retire from teaching in 2005, people inquired what her post retirement plans were. One response was that she hoped to volunteer through University League with The First Book Program (now renamed Bookworms.) Helen Read, former librarian at Shorewood Hills Elementary School, and Diane Smidt, fourth grade teacher at Shorewood and Kathy have comprised a team going into preschool centers for over seven years and distributing books to classes. They read to the children, do assorted projects, usually supply a treat and encourage a love and respect for books. They have covered the Wexford Ridge Head Start location for five years and present to both a morning and afternoon class. Kathy would like to salute the League administrator (as well as presenter) of Bookworms, Mary Warfield, the League members who submit grants, the many volunteer readers, and the League members who contribute funds to the Bookworms program. Kathy has served upon the Board as Membership Chair and Volunteer Services. She has especially enjoyed the Lunch Bunch and Art Appreciation interest groups.

Betsy Haimson, Program Assistant, was born in St. Paul, Minnesota. She earned a B. A. in History from Northwestern University, and a Masters in Social Work from the University of Minnesota. There she met and married her husband, Bezalel Haimson. While he completed his PhD, Betsy practiced social work in the public schools and at the University of Minnesota Hospitals. In 1968 they moved to Duncan, Oklahoma, where Betsy served as social worker with the local Office of Economic Opportunity and subsequently opened the county mental health office. She and her husband moved to Madison in 1969 when her husband joined what is now the Department of Material Sciences and Engineering. Since then, Betsy has practiced social work at University Hospitals and Home Health United. In 2004 she became a Certified Laughter Leader, leading groups in laughter 'for no reason'. Betsy has served as a docent at the Madison Museum of Contemporary Art. She continues to volunteer at Jewish Social Services (JSS) where she has served on the Board of Directors and chaired the Senior Adult Committee. She teaches Yoga from a Chair at Lechayim, the JSS senior-adult nutrition site. Betsy enjoys yoga, laughter, bicycling and, with her husband, travel. They have a daughter and 2 grandchildren who live in Madison. Betsy and her husband have been loyal members of the UL Foreign Foods interest group, which Betsy co-chaired twice. On the UL Board, Betsy has served as Volunteer Chair and Assistant Chair of the Program Committee.
Members select their own book/or story to present to the group. We meet from September through June. Our programs this year have had an interesting variety. As chairperson I invited Jill Muehrcke to talk about her own book "Waking Up Happy". Jill is a long time member of University League, has suffered from an addiction, and in her writing has provided a pathway for others to overcoming their problems associated with alcohol, drugs and other obsessions. A member's daughter who is an American citizen living in Australia and a professor there, presented a program on her own personal interest in the arts by creating "wearable art" from the castoffs of others. She was wearing a jacket made from bits and pieces of fabrics and decorated with jewels gathered from friends, and from places like Goodwill and the Salvation Army. Another member found a lengthy letter in her mother's effects describing a fierce storm and a resulting fire which almost completely destroyed the farm home and barn. The letter and the event described were written several weeks prior to our member's birth. How quickly the father and grandfather set to work rebuilding what was destroyed was noted and admired. Pictures of the home prior to the fire and after the reconstruction by these two men and some of their neighbors were passed for us to see. This was our member's home the years before starting grade school.

Another program was the personal reminiscence of a member's teen years spent living in or near London during the war. She talked about going to school in England, having and making friends there, then returning home sailing on the Queen Mary. The passengers enjoyed the trip but the Captain zigzagged the Atlantic to avoid being bombed by Hitler's U-boats. We have mentioned home several times and one of our member's presented Julie Andrew's book, "Home". Julie was 78 when writing this book and has been blessed with vocal talents which are now fragile. Two of our members joined forces in giving a reading of John Adams and his wife Abigail Adams letters to one another. One took the part of reading Abigail’s letters and one took the part of John. We had theater seating and the two members were at the podium. It was a delightful treat. The Adames addressed each other as My Dearest Friend. By Betty Elsas

We meet at Oakwood Village University Woods (Oakwood West) in the Community Room for a catered lunch. New members are always welcome.

UNIVERSITY LEAGUE SCHOLARSHIP WINNERS

NICHOLAS MONFELI

Nicholas is from Racine where he attended a high school of approximately 275 students. He does not have a family connection to the UW-Madison but came because of the great environmental program available and the many other opportunities offered here. Nicholas has thrown himself into campus life as well as his studies. His involvements include the EDGE Project (now renamed TAWI); WISPIRG; and Wisco High Five. The EDGE Project currently focuses on a community in Uganda which involves students doing research projects. The current WISPIRG effort is centered on the reduction in use of disposable plastic water bottles on campus. The Wisco High Five effort involves a crew of students who at selected times go around campus and give High Fives to others. This has been met with enthusiastic responses.

As for academics, Nicholas has interest in everything from Buddhism and Arabic to American Environmental History. He is currently taking courses in African Geography, Urbanizing Europe, Environmental Policy, Political Theory and Global Warming. He has a double major in political science and geography. His goal is to secure a certificate in Environmental Studies and to work on policy relating to global warming. Nicholas says that he is extremely grateful for the financial aid his Memorial Scholarship provides and thanks the University League for making it available to him.

ANTHONY D. DaBRUZZI

Anthony is an Angelina Frensley Lenehan Scholar and thanks the League for the opportunities that this provides him. He is the first member of his family to pursue higher education. He is from Comstock, WI and is a sophomore. Anthony is committed to community service and has spent many hours serving as a student board member of Habitat for Humanity and as president of the Barron County Restorative Justice Teen Court Program. At the end of his high school career he received the nationally recognized Jefferson Award for public service.

He chose the UW because of its offerings and because it is in Madison, the seat of State Government. Anthony’s double major is in Political Science and Journalism. He is involved in student government and is an Associate Justice on the Student Judiciary and Vice Chair of the Student Election Commission. He also has an internship with the State Senator from his home district. His Communication Arts course work involves writing and delivering stories every Tuesday evening in two broadcasts on WSUM, the student radio station. Recent broadcasts focused on the Sequester’s negative effects on Wisconsin Agriculture and on the Steelworkers Labor Union’s objections to the Milwaukee Area Technical College’s welder training program.

“This is a fun group—readers sharing thoughtful, insightful comments about our chosen books!”
So far this year we have read: The Cat’s Table by Michael Ondaatje; The Nine by Jeffrey Toobin; The Sense of an Ending by Julian Barnes; I Hear Voices by Jean Ferrara (and reviewed by Jean); Ransom by David Malouf; The Tiger’s Wife by Tea Obreht; and How It All Began by Penelope Lively. All quite different books, but all were enjoyed especially after the review and discussion that followed.

Book discussions are led by members and, occasionally, a local author participates in the discussion of his/her book, or we do a play reading. We usually have coffee and dessert, but may do lunch. We meet in members’ homes. Books read this year include: Montana 1948 by Larry Watson; Unbroken: A WWII Story of Survival, Resilience and Redemption by Laura Hillenbrand; Bringing Up the Bodies by Hilary Mantel; In the Garden of Beasts by Erik Larson; and State of Wonder by Ann Patchett. Our next book is: What is Left the Daughter by Howard Norman.

VOLUNTEER NEWS

Did you see us on WPT on Sunday, March 10? University League members proudly wearing Badger red answered phones during WPT’s recent fundraising effort. The volunteer shift lasted 4 hours and included training, refreshments, and a meal donated by a local restaurant. More than $520,000 was raised from over 4000 pledges by 450 volunteers during the three week event.

THE DONALD AND WILMA SITES UNIVERSITY LEAGUE SCHOLARSHIP FUND

The University League has recently become aware of a University League Endowed Scholarship that was established in 2004. It is the result of a Donald H. and Wilma L. Sites Trust gift in the name of University League. It was a major gift and the largest endowment gift the League has ever received. The official fund title is “The Donald and Wilma Sites Scholarship Fund” and it is operated as a permanent endowment. The annual distributions from the fund are administered by the Office of Student Financial Aid and are given to deserving and needy students in their junior or senior years. Recent distributions from the fund have been in the range of $30,000-$35,000 per year and those funds have been awarded to approximately ten students each year.

Wilma Sites was President of University League from 1967-1968.
