

Members read an assigned book prior to attending each meeting. A group member leads the discussion and all members actively participate.

Starting with the October 19, 2020, meeting we will meet on Zoom until further notice. Book titles will be posted to the University League website as they are chosen.